“ Condolences to Joe's family. We were classmates at Towson U and at WCVT Radio. Joe was a valued member of our staff and our sports group, including Joe, were very close friends back in the day. I really respected his hard work over many years on Ravens coverage and really enjoyed his radio segments on 105.7 the Fan. I think we all have fond memories of Joe and know he would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. RIP friend.

“ Worked with Joe for a couple of years at Towson (State) University's "The Towerlight" newspaper. He had an encyclopedic knowledge of sports generally and an ability to ferret out the most obscure statistics and make them relevant. A tough man to please when it came to Super Bowl halftime spectacles. Joe wasn't impressed with most of them.

I just read about it in the alumni magazine. I know he had health issues for many years, but what a decent human being. He will be missed.

I just recently learned of Joe s passing. Very Sad. Joe and I hung out with friends. Joe knew his sports and Joe perfected his craft through the years. Joe, you are truly missed, more than you know.
