

Kathleen J. Fay

October 24, 1941 - July 27, 2024

On July 27, 2024 Kathleen J. Fay passed away peacefully after a long illness. She was the beloved daughter of the late Francis Vincent Fay, Jr and Helen E. Fay (nee Pueltz), and devoted sister of the late Francis Vincent Fay III (aka Tim). She is survived by her loving sisters in the Companions group and fellow members of Living Water Inclusive Catholic Community.

Kathy loved learning, music, theater, traveling the world, and books. She graduated from the College of Notre Dame with a BA in History, from the University of North Carolina with an MS in Library Science, and from the Johns Hopkin University with an MA in Liberal Arts. All that education served her well as a valued employee and supervisor at the Enoch Pratt Free Library for more than 48 years.

Kathy was an active member and long time volunteer with “Friends of Mercy”, a support group organized at the local high school for separated and/or divorced members of the community ; also active in the “Spiritual Companions” women’s group, her church - Living Water Inclusive Catholic Community, and St. Isaac Jogues religious book discussion group prior to her illness.

Kathy’s friends and colleagues will remember her for her kind and thoughtful ways, her funny puns, and her proclivity to get up and dance to a spritely tune.

She has left a sweet and gentle mark on many lives. We will miss Kathy and remember her with love.
