

Mabrey Annetta DeLucia

December 4, 1936 - February 14, 2025

Mabrey Annetta DeLucia, born December 4, 1936, in Jacksonville, Maryland, passed away peacefully at her home in Aberdeen, Maryland, on February 14, 2025.

She is survived by her loving husband, James DeLucia, with whom she shared many cherished years, her stepson, Richard Ellis, her stepdaughters, Vickie Gerek and Pamela DeLucia, as well as 7 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. Mabrey was preceded in death by her three beloved brothers, her eldest brother, Vernon Scarff, her twin, James Scarff, and her youngest brother, Bill Scarff, as well as her parents, Ruth Conway and Vernon Scarff.

Mabrey's life was one of quiet strength, kindness, and unwavering love for those around her. She loved to travel and remained young at heart with an adventurist spirit. She earned her pilot's license and loved to fly when she was younger. She will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

A service to honor and celebrate Mabrey's life will be held graveside on Tuesday, February 25th, 2025, at 1pm at Dulaney Valley Memorial Gardens 200 East Padonia Road in Timonium, MD 21093. Everyone attending will meet at the lake at 1pm.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the American Cancer Society at cancer.org.

May she rest in peace with the Lord and be reunited with her loved ones who went before her.
