

Margaret Bourne Henck

March 30, 1927 - May 9, 2022

Margaret Elizabeth Bourne Henck, 95, of Parkville, MD, widow of the late Louis Edward Henck, passed away Monday May 9, 2022.

Born in Chaneyville, Calvert County, MD, the daughter and the fourth of eight children of the late James and Helen Bourne. She came to Baltimore in 1957 to work for the federal government in the Federal Land Bank building and then the Department of General Services for Maryland. Surviving are her three sons: Charles, Arthur and Samuel; predeceased by her daughter Elizabeth Scarpulla; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

She loved to travel and took many trips to sites around the world. Margaret was a deeply faithful person and enjoyed supporting many causes that were dear to her heart. The most notable among them was the Wycliff Bible College where she volunteered to help translate the Bible into all the languages of the world. She spent 6 months in Papua New Guinea and several months in India with them.

The family will receive friends Saturday May 21, 2022 from 11:00 a.m. until noon at Dulaney Valley Memorial Gardens Mausoleum Chapel.

A memorial service will follow in the Chapel.

Memorials may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

“ Margaret was a special person full of love and light. She was incredibly generous and never said an unkind word. She had a bright smile and gave the best hugs. I will miss her but feel lucky to have had her in my life for over 20 years. The world will not be quite as bright without her in it. Rest in Peace.

*Love,
Erin*
