“ I remember going over to Aunt Pasty and Uncle Bob's house and playing with their wiener dog can't remember the dogs name. Also going over to swim in the pool. One time I was there and Uncle Bob using an ice cube, pierced my ears. Oh, How about all the years of Donkey baseball we all went to see down from their house. So many memories. Rest In Peace Aunt Pasty. Tell my Dad I said Hi .Love you.

“ I remember Aunt Pat and Uncle Bob staying with us (I think their house was being built in Timonium). Aunt Pat was expecting Steven at the time. I was about 3 yrs old. I bet I set her crazy with lots of questions. After Steven was born, they took me to spend a week with them. Unfortunately, I didn't make it through the first night. Being homesick, I cried so badly that they had to take be back home. Later, I regretted that I didn't stay! Aunt Pat was so patient and Uncle Bob was so much fun; I missed a great time. I know they're together again with their boys. Sending hugs, Aunt Pat, to all of you and I only wish I could send you some cookies!
