

R. Alden Fries

October 12, 1938 - January 6, 2023

Richard Alden Fries, age 84, of Pikesville, MD, passed away peacefully on January 6, 2023, at Gilchrist Center Towson.

Born in Fort Wayne, Indiana to Edwin C. and Thelma E. Fries. Richard met and married, the love of his life Luz Maria. He went on to graduate from Indiana University with a Business Degree and moved his family to Puerto Rico. His first job was as an auditor where he got to travel to many parts of the island, later he became Plant Manager for several major pharmaceutical companies. In Puerto Rico he continued the sport of target shooting that he had begun as a youngster. He made many friends and went on to represent Puerto Rico in several international competitions in the 3 position category. He also enjoyed fishing, tennis and bowling.

Alden is survived by his wife of 61 years, daughters Catherine M. Fries (Jesus) and Carol A. Fries, grandchildren Paola (Dustin) and Marcos, and great-granddaughter Nika.

He is preceded in death by his parents, sisters Anita Frisbie and Pat Stevens and brother Dale E. Fries.

Memorial Contributions may be made to his favorite charity: St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
