“ Dear Bill,
Imagine my surprise to find out that you were gone.
I loved you my whole life and attempted to show you in many ways.
You weren't the same after Mom passed. You were lost, depressed, lonely, and unhappy. You cared for her for so long and never seemed to get tired. You were tired and not well yourself. You did a little better at Oakcrest, meeting up with friends at dinner. It wasn't enough to sustain you. Mom was your only happiness. I will remember the good times. Like the time we went to the reception at the Cadillac dealers (Chipparellas) , You, me, and Mom. You had bought a new Cadillac, but we went in my car so I could drive. You had to throw away that beautiful green sportcoat because we ate and drank so much! You were in the backseat and you, Mom and me sang "Goodnight Irene." Goodnight Bill, rest in peace.
Your loving daughter, Elizabeth.
